22 January 2016

Dear Mr. Albala,

This refers to your communication of 7th December 2014 addressed to the UNEP secretariat, requesting accreditation of Terre des Jeunes to the Governing Body of the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP).

Following careful assessment and consideration of the documents and information provided by you, I am pleased to inform you Terre des Jeunes, has been granted Accreditation as an observer to the governing body of UNEP, which was renamed as the United Nations Environment Assembly (UNEA) of the United Nations Environment Programme by the General Assembly Resolution 67/251 of 13 March 2013. Your organization will forthwith receive invitations as an observer to all public meetings and sessions of the United Nations Environment Assembly and its subsidiary organs.

Please note that as an accredited organisation, you are required to file a report of your activities to UNEP every four years from the date of accreditation. This report known as quadrennial report is to be submitted to the Secretariat of Governing Bodies and Stakeholders in a specific format that UNEP will communicate to you.

An excerpt of rule 70 of the Rules of Procedure of the United Nations Environment Assembly (UNEA) of the United Nations Environment Programme is attached for your information and compliance. Please also see UNEP's Stakeholder Engagement Handbook that can be found under <http://www.unep.org/civil-society/Handbook/tabid/1060445/Default.aspx>.

Yours sincerely,

Jorge Laguna-Celis
Secretary of Governing Bodies and Stakeholders

THE RULES OF PROCEDURE

XIII. OBSERVERS OF INTERNATIONAL NON-GOVERNMENTAL ORGANIZATIONS

Rule 70

1. International non-governmental organizations having an interest in the field of the environment referred to in section IV, paragraph 5 of General Assembly resolution 2997 (XXVII), may designate representatives to sit as observers at public meetings of the United Nations Environment Assembly and its subsidiary organs, if any. The United Nations Environment Assembly shall from time to time adopt and revise when necessary a list of such organizations. Upon the invitation of the President or Chairperson, as the case may be, and subject to the approval of the United Nations Environment Assembly or of the subsidiary organ concerned, international non-governmental organizations may make oral statements on matters within the scope of their activities.
2. Written statements provided by international non-governmental organizations referred to in paragraph 1 above, related to items on agenda of the United Nations Environment Assembly or of its subsidiary organs shall be circulated by the secretariat to members of the United Nations Environment Assembly or of the subsidiary organ concerned in the quantities and in the languages in which statements were made available to the secretariat for distribution.
